MOORE TO DEFEND HIS BILLIARD TITLE

De Oro's Challenge Accepted by Winner of Three Cushion Championship.

George W. Moore, who won the three cushion carrom championship in the tournament held in Chicago from March 6 to March 21, will have to defend his title between May 2 and 12. Alfredo De Oro will be his opponent, and the con-test will be one of 200 points played in three nights, 65 points on each of first two nights and 70 on the third, Under the conditions governing the championship trophy given by the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company players beaten in the tournament were eligible in the order in which they fin-ished to challenge the winner. Thus Huey had a prior right to challenge and Daly stood next in precedence. Huey, asserted that he competed in the tournament only to demonstrate that he extreme safety tactics, and said that he sional. He refused to accept second prize, $700 in cash, and declined to exprize, $100 in casii, and declined to ex-ercise his right to challenge ahead of other eligibles. Daly also declined to challenge and went to San Francisco to fill an engagement. Thereupon De Oro, who finished fourth, issued a challenge. Subsequently Huey challenged the winner of the Moore-De Oro match.

Vollmer Wins Two Dashes and Wilson Takes Dive-Relay Another Triumph.

TRIPLE TIE IS RENEWED

PRINCETON, April 17.—By virtue of Columbia's victory over University of Pennsylvania in swimming here tonight they are again in a triple tie for the intercollegiate championship. The score of the meet was Columbia, 29; Pennsylvania, 24. Aleck Wilson, the former Yale star, and Hal Vollmer were the ones that turned the trick for the New York team, the former winning the fancy dive, while Vollmer winning the fancy dive, while vollmer starred in every swimming event.

A new mark in the 100 yard swim was hung up by Vollmer, who clipped a fifth of a second from the record of 58 1-5 seconds, which he made in the individual intercollegiates of this year. He also won the 220, finished second in the 50 and swam anchor on the relay team. Shryock was elected to give him a battle royal in the eve-its, but save in the 50 yard swim he offered only fair competition. Vollmer also helped Columbia win the relay race.

He was also director of its policies under several sets of stockholders, being urged several sets of stockholders, being urged to continue actively in charge even when A. H. (Rick) Woodward obtained control. Woodward realized Baugh's worth as a practical baseball and business man, and Baugn continued to hold the position, although he is heavily interested in the local business world. He is president of and a large stockholder in the Birmingham Arms and Cycle Company, one of the largest sporting goods stores in this district.

The Birmingham club has been noted for its business administration, and loubtless has made money year in and year out, although it has not been stinting in its policy. It has paid its players good money and has built one of the best parks in the country. This park, which is of concrete and steel in both bleachers and grand stand, is a model in every way, with a beautiful big playing surface, large enough for home runs a plenty within the grounds. Local baseball followers are much elated over the choice of Baugh to suc-ceed the late Judge W. M. Kavanaugh at the head of the league.

The electric buttons are so convenient.

The tires are so large-35 x 4½-inches all around with non-skids on the rear.

In fact, you will wonder why people continue to pay $2000 to $2500 for Sixes when this one costs but $1475!

Our dealer has a new Six for you.
